Small Bulk Solutions

Focus is the formula.

As an integral component of our commitment to helping our customers maximize value, efficiency and performance, Research Solutions offers Small Bulk Solutions. This innovative program allows you to buy and store larger quantities at a time when we install small bulk tanks on-site at your facility. We will work with you to evaluate your usage requirements and determine the best size and location for your tanks. Because we supply the tanks at no additional charge, you will begin to see the Small Bulk Solutions benefits and cost savings immediately.

Benefits Include:

- Immediate cost savings with 100% access to your inventory (No drum loss of product)
- Lower labor costs due to the elimination of handling chemicals
- No hassle or cost for empty drum removal and disposal of empty drums
- Inventory outages are all but eliminated because of quick "visuals" of inventory on hand
- Safety is improved because of fixed grounding for flammable chemicals
- Workman's comp claims are reduced by eliminating drum handling
- Less space needed for chemical storage
- Regular delivery routes made by our trucks optimize your inventory requirements and help keep your inventory costs at a minimum
